TASTING NOTES

Crimson-rosewood in color and bursting with deep berry fruit the wine opens with juicy briar berry, cassis, and plum and rolls over the palate in waves of tart cherry, fig jam, and grenadine. Earthy dimensions of Syrah and Petite Syrah lend grounding savory elements of pepper and anise, while the abundant fruit notes of Zinfandel and Grenache suggest strawberry and balsamic.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Individual parcels were vinted and barrel-aged separately with blending taking place in stages over a sixteen-month period. Final assemblage took place five months prior to bottling so that the wine could integrate and age as a blend. French Oak aged
