ABOUT THIS WINERY

Abadía Retuerta sits within an enclave bathed by the river Duero, which defines the surrounding terroir and all its unique traits. Experts with great dedication, know-how and patience really get the best out of the terrain: they respect the natural cycles and help the vines adapt to the harsh climate of the region, in order to produce one of the estate's prized assets: its first-rate wine.

TASTING NOTES

It is a bright yet deep red, denoting a young wine. On the nose it is clean and fragrant, with aromatic complexity - there are fruity aromas of blackberry, red plum and figs, along with floral hints (of wild rose) and spiced notes of clove and bay leaf. At first the taste is broad, vibrant and fresh, but also smooth and mellow thanks to its fine-grained and mature tannins that coat the palate. It has a long finish.
