ABOUT THIS WINERY

The Domaine Arnaud Lambert wines are the result of the transition of the Saint Cyr and the Domaine Saint-Just label, which was founded by Arnaud's father Yves. The father/son team began working together in 2005, and in 2009, they also became managers of the viticultural estate of the Château de Brézé. The same year, they began converting all of their vineyards to organic, and were officially certified in 2012.

TASTING NOTES

Intense purplish-red color. Vegetal and fruity notes dominate the nose. Subtle floral notes are also present. This semi-dry red shows great freshness and fleshy tannins. True to the scents perceived on olfaction, it recalls flavors of green bell pepper, red fruit and flowers. It reveals a supple texture that carries through to a fairly sustained finish.

PRODUCTION NOTES

This wine is made from grapes (100% Cabernet Franc) from the Clos Mazurique parcel, renowned for its sandy-loamy, chalky soil.
