ABOUT THIS WINERY

Canada's fruit basket - one of the southernmost parts of Canada - an idyllic little peninsula with a unique microclimate due to the ocean-like Great lakes that surround it. Dolomitic Limestone abounds here - interspersed with clay - giving the wines intense perfume; a rich mouthfeel and a defining iron grip that speaks of the Escarpment where the grapes are grown - the same Escarpment from whence tumble the world-famous 'Niagara Falls.'

TASTING NOTES

Initially, a suggestion of darker, noble, pure chalky red raspberries; then, a corrupt cherry fruit that verges on minty morello cherries! Surely, one of the most enigmatic, lip-smacking expressions of Lowrey we have yet seen. Savoury and long. Words fail.
