ABOUT THIS WINERY

The oldest family estate in Bordeaux, Château Pitray extends over 130 hectares, 60 of which are vineyards, 40 forests and 30 meadows. Located in Gardegan, the château faces south, 8 km as the crow flies from the Saint-Emilion bell tower. Biodiversity is preserved throughout the estate, as evidenced by the presence of the Cephalanthera damasonium orchid and truffles...

The family has owned the estate for over 600 years.

TASTING NOTES

Notes of candied fruit, dried figs and currants, delicate despite the sensation of great ripeness. On the palate, this aromatic range is repeated with present but velvety tannins. Nina Mitjavile, consultant winemaker.

PRODUCTION NOTES

The 2020 vintage was very early and hot, and despite the rainy spring was marked by a dry summer. Thanks to the clay-limestone terroir, the Pitray vines did not suffer from water stress, and the fruit is very ripe but well-balanced. On tasting, the warmth of the vintage is first felt through notes of black fruit and very ripe tannins, then the terroir softens and tempers this expression. The wines here are greedy but velvety and refined.
