Amarone della Valpolicella Classico
2016

Wine Spectator

92 POINTS

“ There’s a sense of finesse to this concentrated red, with the fine tannins providing a plush frame for well-knit flavors of ripe red and black currant, wild sage, red licorice and graphite-laced mineral that linger on the mouthwatering finish. Drink now through 2029. ”

- Alison Napjus, February 2020
